A Professional Law Corporation

Steven Brower is a Shareholder and member of the Litigation Practice Group in the firm's Orange County office. His practice emphasizes litigation particularly in the areas of business insurance coverage, computer technology (including e-discovery) and intellectual property, although he also regularly handles matters related to general business litigation including real estate, embezzlement, construction, contract disputes and fraud.

Mr. Brower has handled all aspects of civil litigation from inception through conclusion, including arbitrations, complex settlements, trials and appeals in more than 10 states. He has represented both companies seeking insurance coverage (having collected over $100 million for clients) and he has also represented insurance companies (having written over 250 coverage opinions and successfully litigating bad faith cases.) In the area of intellectual property he regularly handles matters relating to copyright, trademark, trade dress and trade secrets, including obtaining and resisting injunctive relief.

Based, in part, on his experience as a mainframe computer programmer, he has represented many computer technology companies including Borland International, Oracle, Octel, Informix, Amdahl, AMS, Microsoft, MicroPro(Wordstar) and Parcom. He was credited as being the first attorney to ever obtain a Preliminary Injunction in a civil case under 18 USC 1030 (Computer Fraud & Abuse Act).

He has represented parties in over 100 mediations and arbitrations. He has also served as an arbitrator and a mediator in matters related to computer systems.

Mr. Brower is a member of the American Bar Association. He is currently the co-chair of the Bad Faith Sub-Committee of the Insurance Coverage Committee of the Section of Litigation and chair of the Book Publishing Committee of the Section , and member of the Council, for the Section of Science & Technology.

Mr. Brower earned both his A.B. cum laude and his J.D. at the University of California, Los Angeles.
