Lucas Davidson, Senior Counsel in the firm's Nashville and Los Angeles offices, brings a wealth of diverse legal experience developed over more than a decade. Practicing in California and Tennessee, he specializes in a range of legal areas, including deal making, real estate development, franchise formation, business litigation, and high-stakes financial negotiations.

Lucas's extensive background in litigation further enriches his practice, enabling him to guide clients effectively in navigating legal challenges and proactively addressing potential issues. He represents corporations, financial institutions, business-minded individuals, lenders, artists, and publicly traded companies in navigating complex legal issues in both litigation and transactional matters. As a dedicated advocate, Lucas also serves as a trusted outside general counsel, offering strategic guidance aimed at mitigating legal risk and optimizing financial decisions for his clients' benefit.

With a background in the entertainment industry, his work also includes assisting studios, artists, and entertainment professionals in preserving their creative rights, negotiating contracts, and seizing career-enhancing opportunities. As he splits time between Nashville and Los Angeles, one of his specialties lies in facilitating the strategic moves of celebrities and high net worth individuals between these two dynamic cities. His understanding of these unique challenges and markets makes him a trusted advisor for clients seeking a smooth transition while safeguarding their assets and interests.

As a Rule 31 Mediator, Lucas is dedicated to delivering innovative solutions to disputes, making him a reliable partner for clients pursuing pragmatic solutions, strategic growth, and a balanced approach to their legal needs.
