

1933

Irwin R. Buchalter started practicing law in Los Angeles.

1948

Buchalter joined California attorneys Jerry Nemer and Murray Fields to serve the area's growing, post-war commercial community.

1957

Merged with a leading business Firm, Gitelson, Cooper, Coyle & Savitch, and assisted clients in business and finances, as well as litigation and insolvency.

1979

Buchalter, Nemer, Fields & Younger was established when former Los Angeles District Attorney and Attorney General of California, Evelle Younger, joined the practice.

1981

The Firm opened an office in San Francisco, CA, its first in Northern California.

1983

The Firm expanded into Orange County and opened an office in Irvine, CA.

1991

35 attorneys from Rosen, Wachtell & Gilbert joined the Firm's Los Angeles office.

1994

Buchalter acquired litigation firm Smith & Smith.

1999

Buchalter grew and added attorneys from Katz, Hoyt, Seigel & Kapor LLP to its Los Angeles office.

2005

The Firm strengthened its regional presence with the acquisition of Anderson, Brody, Levinson & Weiser, bolstering the Firm's financial services and real estate sectors, and establishing a Scottsdale office.

2010

Buchalter acquired real estate boutique, Ellman, Burke, Hoffman & Johnson in its San Francisco office.

2015

The Firm expanded into Napa Valley, and opened an office in St. Helena, CA.

2017

The Firm continued to expand by opening offices in both Sacramento, CA and Seattle, WA.

2018

Buchalter acquired energy boutique, Alcantar & Kahl in its San Francisco office and opened an office in San Diego, CA.

2019

Buchalter opens office in Portland, OR with the addition of attorneys from Ater Wynne.