

Ann Gong

Seattle, Washington
Attorney

P (206) 319-7005
agong@buchalter.com

Areas of Practice & Industry Specialties

Litigation; Sports Industry Law; Cannabis & Hemp Industry Law Group; Professional Responsibility

Ann Gong is a member of the Buchalter's Litigation Practice Group in the Firm's Seattle office. Ms. Gong has extensive experience in corporate investigations, including internal investigations into allegations of confidential information leaks, expense fraud, bribery, conflicts of interest, and kickbacks. Prior to joining Buchalter, Ms. Gong worked in Amazon's Legal Department on compliance matters.

Ms. Gong was selected as the Pro Bono Attorney of the month by Kids in Need of Defense (KIND) in December 2018 and to date has handled six asylum cases with KIND over five years. While working with the Innocence Project, she co-drafted a brief for the Virginia Supreme Court.

Education

Ms. Gong earned her J.D. from Lewis & Clark Law School, where she served as the President of the Minority Law Student Association. She also served as a Judicial Extern for Judge Stuart Hing of the Superior Court of California, Alameda County. Ms. Gong earned her A.B. in Politics, with a focus on International Relations and a Certificate in Environmental Studies from Princeton University.

Bar Admissions

- Washington

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court Western District of Washington
- U.S. Court of International Trade