Daniel Dow is a real estate attorney in Buchalter's Orange County office. His practice focuses on representing clients in the financing, acquisition, disposition and leasing of commercial real estate. Mr. Dow regularly represents lenders and borrowers in connection with financing the acquisition, development and/or renovation of all types of commercial real estate, including multifamily, office, industrial and retail properties. He has also represented both buyers and sellers in transactions valued from a few hundred thousand dollars to $250 million. Mr. Dow's practice is nationwide and has involved properties in nearly half of the states, including major markets like Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, Seattle and Miami as well as smaller markets like Albuquerque, New Mexico, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Hillsboro, Oregon.

With an undergraduate degree in business administration and experience representing business owners in tax matters prior to attending law school, Mr. Dow is acutely aware of the business considerations that often accompany real estate transactions and works to ensure that the legal counsel he provides his clients is consistent with such considerations.

Mr. Dow was named "One to Watch" in Real Estate Law by Best Lawyers in 2022.

Education

Mr. Dow received his J.D. from Loyola Law School where he was an editor at the Loyola Los Angeles Law Review. He received his B.S. cum laude from California State Polytechnic University.
