Areas of Practice & Industry Specialties

Tax, Benefits and Estate Planning

Jarom Phipps is a certified specialist in estate planning, trust, and probate law by the California State Bar Board of Legal Specialization. Jarom's specialty is trust and estate related litigation, where throughout California he helps clients navigate complex issues all the way through discovery and trial. His clients include trustees, executors, creditors, and beneficiaries/heirs. Jarom expertly assists his clients with a variety of issues, including trust and will contests, estate mismanagement, interpretation disputes, probate and trust administration, and estate accountings. As such, Jarom's knowledge as a certified specialist and his skillset as a litigation attorney make him uniquely qualified to handle complex and nuanced cases.
