Jeremy Weitz is a Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Firm's Corporate Practice Group. Mr. Weitz's expertise covers mergers and acquisitions, private equity, publicly and privately traded securities, corporate maintenance and formation, corporate finance and licensing. He represents clients in a variety of industries, including apparel, retail, beauty, food, entertainment, computer software, e-commerce, aerospace and defense, manufacturing, and investment banking that range in size from small start-ups to multi-billion dollar publicly traded corporations. Mr. Weitz routinely serves as outside general counsel for his corporate clients.

Mr. Weitz represents both buyers and sellers in merger and acquisition transactions. Mr. Weitz's mergers and acquisitions practice is focused on the middle market with transaction values ranging between $10 million up to $3 billion.

Mr. Weitz routinely lectures on mergers and acquisitions and the apparel industry. He has also served as a faculty lecturer for the Practising Law Institute where he has lectured on mergers and acquisitions and financing transactions.

Mr. Weitz is also former Chair of the Firm's Apparel Industries Practice Group. Mr. Weitz's apparel industry practice includes representation of manufacturers, importers and retailers. His experience in the apparel industry includes mergers and acquisitions, finance, commercial law, financial and business planning, licensing, copyright and trademark matters and corporate law.

In the community, Mr. Weitz is the former President and current Board Member of the Apparel Industries Group for the City of Hope. He has also served as both Dinner Chair and Fundraising Chair for this group. Mr. Weitz is also the former President and board member of The Professionals Club (formerly, the Textile Professionals Club or TPC) which is a networking group for professionals from a wide range of business backgrounds including accountants, investment bankers, commercial bankers, lawyers, property agents and developers, financial advisors, and other professionals, that serve the local business community.

Mr. Weitz earned his J.D. cum laude at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles in 1998 and he received his B.A. with honors in Political Science at Emory University in 1995. While in law school, Mr. Weitz was awarded the Dean's Academic Scholarship and was a member of the Alpha Sigma Nu Honor Society and Order of the Coif.
