Greater China Practice; Trade Secrets & Employee Mobility; Corporate Law; Intellectual Property Law; Litigation

Lee C. Cheng is a Shareholder based in the firm's Orange County office, a member of the Corporate, Intellectual Property and Litigation Practice Groups, and the Chair of the Greater China Practice Group. Mr. Cheng's practice spans a broad array of disciplines, from corporate transactional work, M&A, finance, governance to intellectual property, licensing and litigation management and strategy. He is regarded as a national expert on defending companies cost effectively against frivolous assertions of intellectual property rights and other types of extortionary litigation, and he prides himself on having a deep understanding of what clients need from outside counsel.

Mr. Cheng's insights on client service comes from more than 20 years at top law firms, including almost 15 as a C-level legal and operations executive. His business experience includes ranking-level executive positions at venture funded startups like LightCross, Inc. (VP of Administration and Legal Affairs) and GeneFluidics, Inc. (General Counsel), to global, multi-billion dollar revenue companies like Newegg.com (Chief Legal Officer, SVP Corporate Development, SVP Human Resources, Corporate Secretary) and Gibson Brands, the owner of Gibson Guitars (Chief Operating Officer).

Mr. Cheng has been recognized a number of times for his thought leadership in the legal profession. He is a two-time winner (2014 and 2016) of the National Law Journal's America's 50 Outstanding General Counsel, and numerous other awards for innovation and excellence in the practice of law. He was named an "Intellectual Property Trailblazer & Pioneer" (2014)—also by the National Law Journal, and received the IP Vanguard Award (2013) from the IP Section of the State Bar of California. In 2018, he became the recipient of the inaugural Champion of Equal Opportunity Education Rights Award of the Asian American Coalition for Education.
