Marlene J. Williams is a Shareholder in the Firm's San Francisco and Los Angeles offices and a member of the Intellectual Property practice group. Ms. Williams focuses on helping clients maximize the value of their brands and copyrights and avoid risks connected with developing new brands and creative works. She partners with clients to strategically build trademark and copyright assets and protect the value of those assets as efficiently as possible. Her practice involves the entire life cycle of a brand, including selection, world-wide protection and enforcement.

Ms. Williams works with both established and emerging companies in a wide range of industries, including entertainment and performing arts, high tech, wine and alcoholic beverage, apparel and food sectors.

Education

Ms. Williams earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, and her B.A. in Political Economics from University of California, Berkeley, with honors.
