Products Liability Law

Samuel Schleier is an Attorney in Buchalter's Los Angeles office. Mr. Schleier is a member of the Firm's Products Liability Practice Group. He focuses his practice on the defense of product manufacturers in civil litigation matters concerning personal injuries, property damage, and consumer warranty claims. Mr. Schleier's experience includes representing automobile companies and manufacturers of consumer and industrial motors in litigation and in pre-litigation claims. He has also defended mobile home park owners and managers in habitability, elder abuse, and statutory violation claims brought by mobile home park residents. Mr. Schleier practices in both state and federal court throughout California and has previously been admitted pro hac vice in Wisconsin. Mr. Schleier counsels his clients through all stages of litigation, including settlement procedures and trials.

Prior to joining Buchalter, Mr. Schleier was a Law Clerk at the Los Angeles Superior Court where he worked closely with trial court judges on all aspects of civil litigation and law and motion work.

Education

Mr. Schleier earned his J.D. at Chapman University, Dale E. Fowler School of Law, where he served as a Senior Articles Editor of the Nexus Journal of Law and Policy, and his B.A. in Peace Studies, with an emphasis in conflict resolution, at Chapman University.
