Corporate Law; Tax, Benefits and Estate Planning

Sandy Isaac is a Senior Counsel in the Firm's San Diego office with particular experience in estate planning, probate, trust administration and conservatorships. Ms. Isaac has ample experience with assisting clients, both individuals and families, expertly guiding them in a variety of matters, including for-profit and not-for-profit business entity formation and bankruptcy.

Ms. Isaac is a thought leader in our community, often speaking at public and privately held seminars on the importance of estate planning as well as other legal topics. For many years Ms. Isaac was a contributor on a highly-rated legal talk radio show on KFMB 760AM. Currently, she is a guest on various radio shows on ESPN Radio 1700AM and KCBQ 1170AM.

Education

Ms. Isaac earned her J. D. from Thomas Jefferson School of Law, and her B.A. degrees in Art History and European History: Russian and Soviet from the University of California San Diego. While obtaining her law degree, she studied Comparative Constitutional Law and International Investment Law & Arbitration in France. She was awarded a scholarship by the San Diego La Raza Lawyers Association and upon graduation she was awarded pro bono honors for her volunteer work with Include Autism, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing services that instill community-wide autism inclusion.
