

Shaleen D. Brewer

Scottsdale, Arizona
Of Counsel

P (480) 383-1807

F (480) 824-9400

C (602) 538-8884

sbrewer@buchalter.com

Shaleen Brewer is Of Counsel in the Firm's Litigation and Labor and Employment Practice Groups in Scottsdale. Ms. Brewer focuses her practice in the areas of employment law, commercial litigation, and business transactions, and frequently advises and defends employers on a variety of matters, including harassment, discrimination, and wage and hour claims. She also has extensive experience drafting employment agreements to include employee handbooks, compensation, non-compete and severance agreements. In addition, she frequently represents clients in contract disputes, business and partnership disputes, and handles a broad range of transactional matters including preparing asset purchases and sales agreements, drafting business formation and governance documents, preparing succession planning documents and drafting and negotiating prenuptial and postnuptial agreements.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Brewer practiced labor and employment, commercial litigation and transactional matters in the Phoenix area and previously in the Seattle, Washington area.

Publication

- "Mach Mining is More Than Meets the Eye for Employers," Law360, May 4, 2015

Ms. Brewer earned her J.D. cum laude from Seattle University School of Law.

Areas of Practice

Litigation

Labor & Employment

Industry Specialties

Charter Schools

Hospitality, Food & Beverage

Wineries, Vineyards and Breweries

Bar Admissions

Arizona

New York

Washington

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona